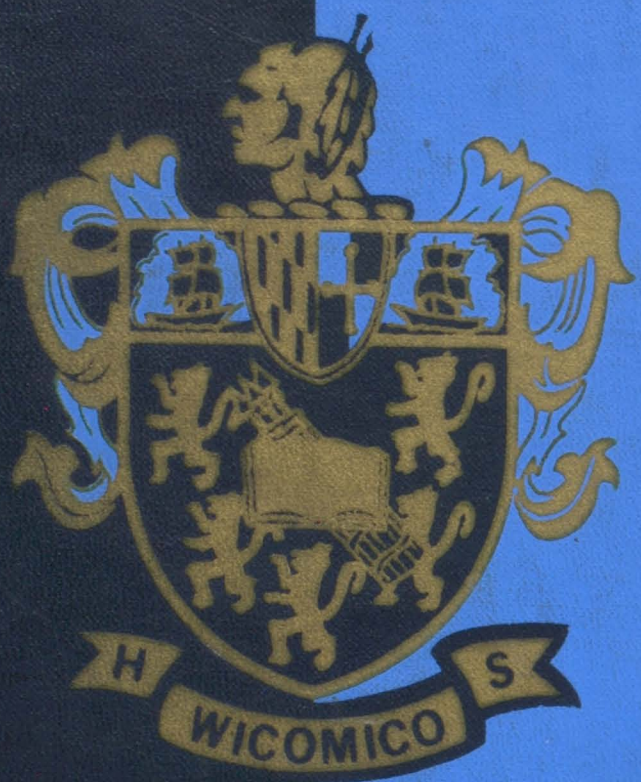
SOME MEN SEE THINGS AS THEY ARE AND SAY WHY?
WE DREAM THINGS AS THEY NEVER WERE AND SAY WHY NOT?

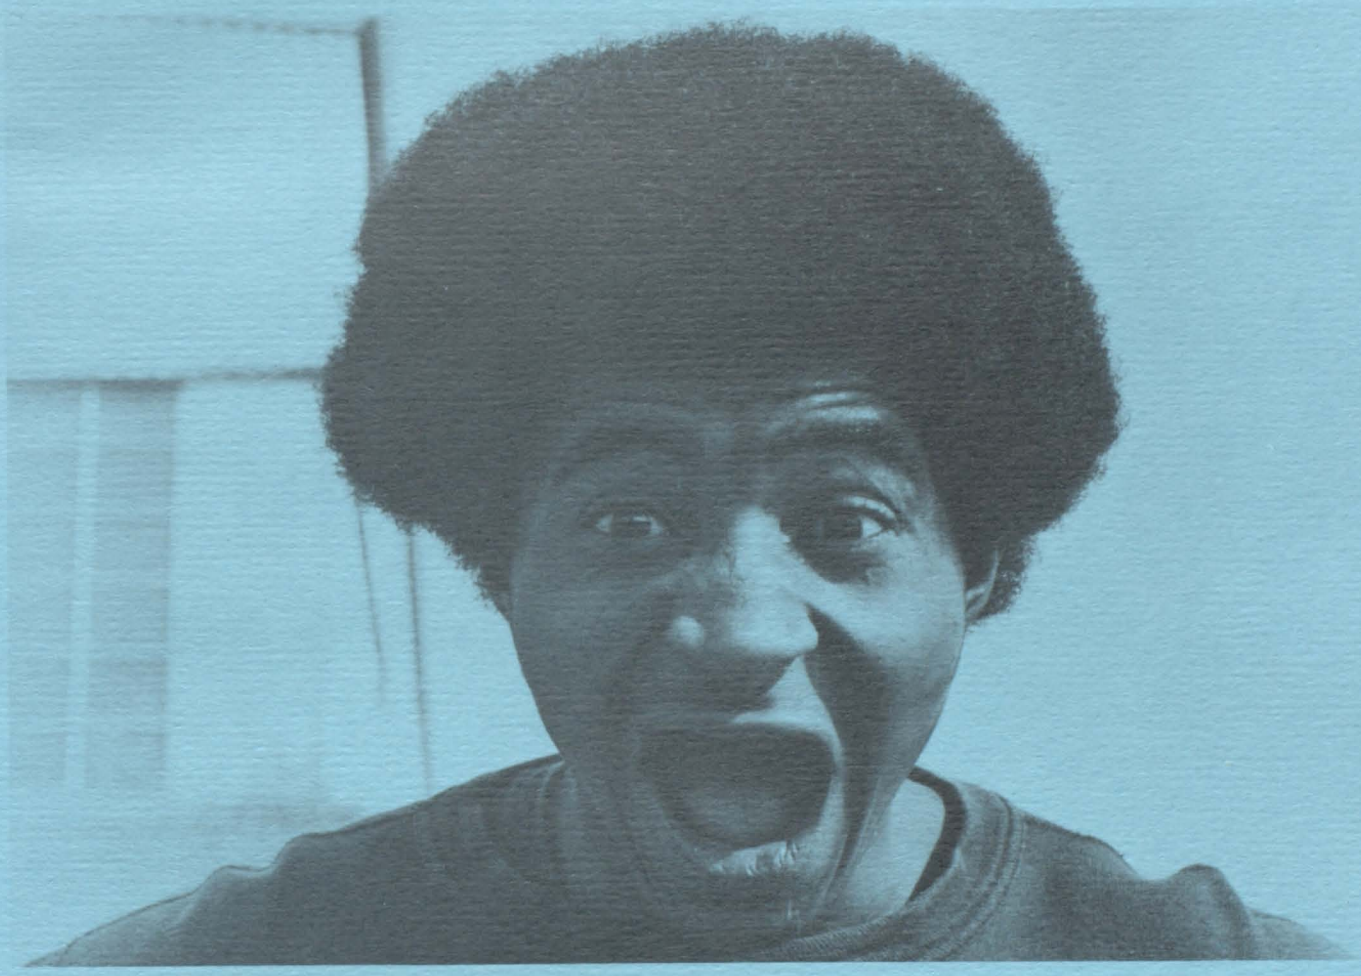
R. KENNEDY

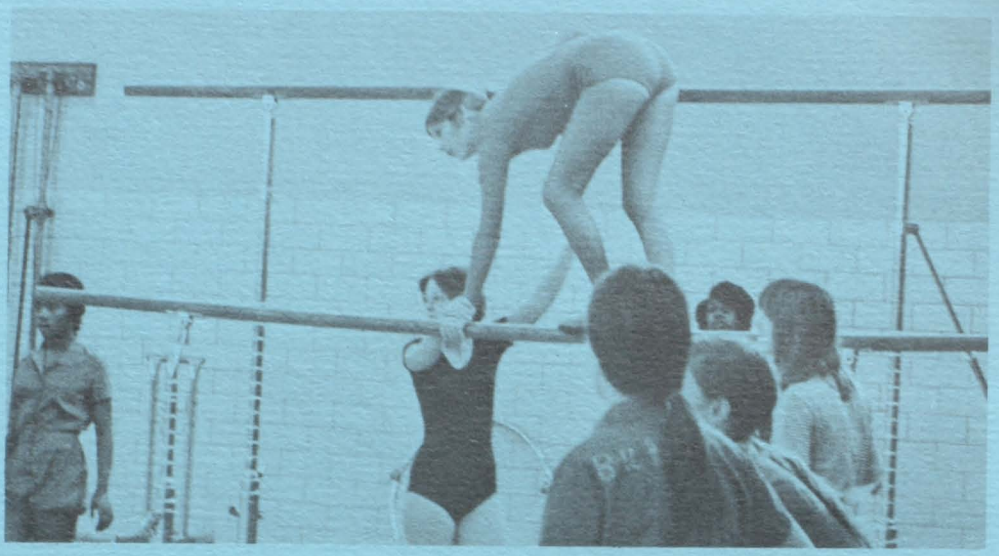


100th ANNIVERSARY

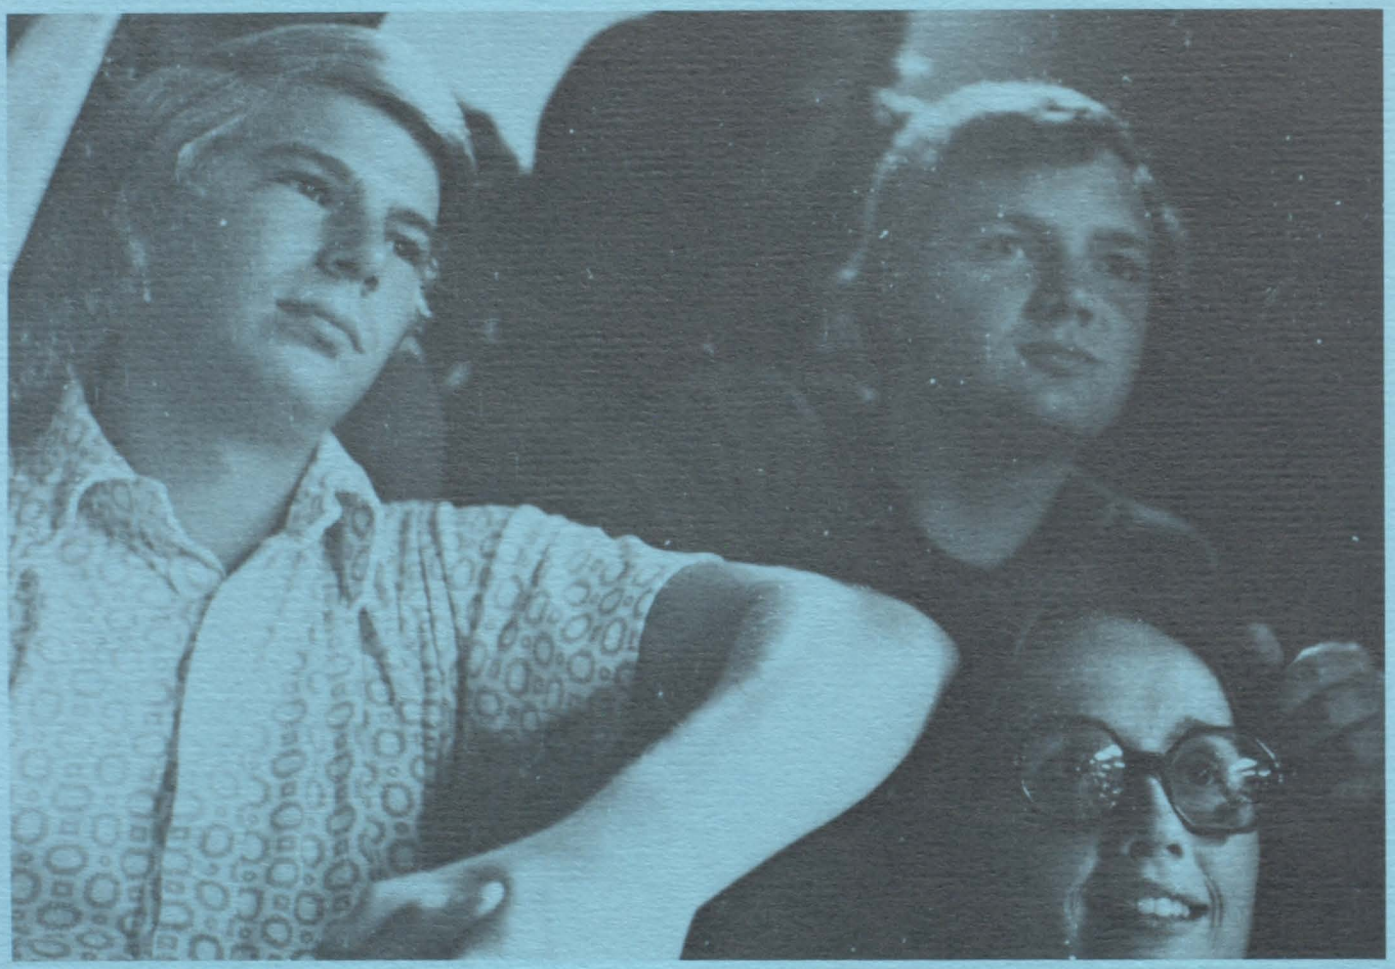
PEOPLE ARE . . .

unique: their uniqueness causes them to search ceaselessly for answers . . .



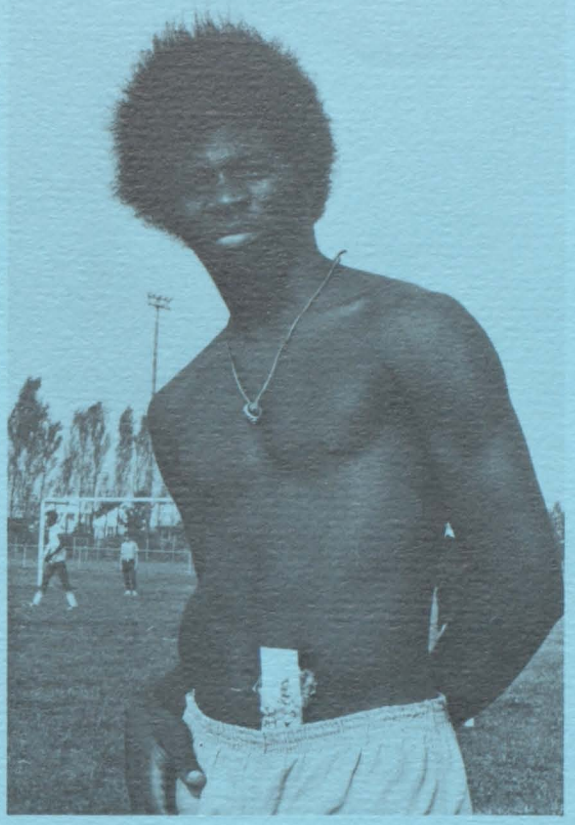


. . . creative: from people come the means and ideas which are combined to form everything that has been formed and ever will be formed . . .



. . . dreamers: dreams to become goals; goals to become realities as the present becomes the future . . .

. . . individuals: sometimes seeking solitude; different from those who have preceded; different from those who will follow . . .



. . . friends: sharing hopes, cigarettes, cars, homework, lunches, beer, laughter, gripes, a sense of belonging to it all, but also . . .

. . . life: adventure; tragedy; comedy; love; death . . .

. . . a kaleidoscope: all people are all colors and all shapes and all things to those whom they love . . .

. . . important . . . WE DO CARE; WE DO MATTER; WE ARE.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Our history is merely a dream record. Some of these dreams came to pass because we thought they were imaginative or useful or beautiful. Some of them drifted into obscurity because we didn't like them, or didn't know, or didn't care.

We as a class could only dream of a first in a Homecoming Float. Glenn Miles let his dreams take him to the Tournament of Roses Parade in California. Our football team turned a dream into reality in their victory over JMB. the Jr-Sr Banquet came to pass again as we reinstituted it, in our junior year. Our basketball boys had a dream that led them to State. Harris Strozier let his dreams take him to 1000 points and 1000 rebounds, and a place on the All-State Basketball Team. Nan Mabe's dream of victory at the Girls' State Track Meet turned into an event when she not only placed third in the 880 run but also was the only girl in our county to place in any event. In addition she broke the county record. Ietje de Rooy allowed her dream to carry her far away from her home. Her contribution to our history is immeasurable and we hope we have given her the opportunity to make her dream come true.

Truly we are a class of dreamers. We stand ready to change the bad and rebuild the good. But we cannot be caught up in the age-old practice of dreaming and then simply standing there with our dreams in our pockets. We must become doers.

Our motto says "some men see . . . we dream . . .", but we must change our motto to "some men dream . . . we act . . .". And we must be willing to make this change, for our history lies, for the most part, in the future. Indeed, we have left our mark at WiHi both as a class and as individuals. But the classes of '74 and '75 and '76 will also leave their marks.

To set ourselves apart from the crowd, we must make our mark in the future; we must set our goals now. And whether good or bad, success or defeat, we must strive to make them a part of our history; we must strive as individuals.

Fifty years from now, will we be able to look back and point out our accomplishments, those things that made us both different and outstanding? Are we going to follow the easy road? Or, in fact, are we going to make our own path to glory, our own thoroughfare through history?

We stand on the "threshold of a dream". The pages of our history remain blank; the white leaves present a challenge. They dare us, and surely we will accept their challenge. We will set our goals. And while some men will only see and ask why, we will dream and then act.

Send a message to history from the class of 1973, and tell it we accept its challenge. With a heart full of the past and a hand full of the future, we will make our history a success.

Respectfully,
Judy Moon, Historian

Oh, summer is over, but the music keeps playing . . . one-way halls are for the kids . . . what's a mini course . . . how come we don't have a play?

. . . learning the facts of life all over again in Health class . . . growing up . . . even when cast among others in a crowd, my individuality shines through . . . . . . we play magic games in class . . .

Sometimes I feel myself day dreaming . . . A lot to learn about, a lot we don't know . . . Grass-stained jeans! . . . who got his hair cut? . . . "I've crouched in this small room each day content to daze the hours away" (Helen L. Marshall) you have to get through another day . . . put on your "paraphernalia" . . . hoping it doesn't snow while you are driving on the road . . . you're on the range . . . keep your eyes on the road . . . keep on your toes . . . down on your knees praying that you will pass the two hour exam . . .

BREAD

We wish to thank every member of the 1973 Tom-Tom Staff for (on the whole) unselfishly devoting both time and effort toward the completion of a successful yearbook. Also deserving of recognition are several of the faculty members for their assistance and tolerance throughout the school year. Many thanks go to Mr. Ray Mitchell for his help in publishing the yearbook. Last, but certainly not least, we wish to give credit for the production of this successful yearbook to our advisor Mrs. Barbara Wilsey; without whom we as a staff couldn't have done it. We feel that this yearbook is one of the best to ever emerge from this school and hope that it will serve as incentive in future years.

The aforementioned statements may sound prejudiced and in truth maybe they are; however, we believe them.

Although it is perhaps not appropriate at this point, we would like to recognize the fact that 1973 marked the 100th year of existence of Wicomico Senior High School. Happy 100th Anniversary to Wi Hi.

THERE'S MORE OF EVERYTHING IN DOWNTOWN SALISBURY

Downtown Salisbury is the focal point of the Delmarva Peninsula's largest and most Progressive city. If the quest is for the selection of finest quality for all members of the family — Downtown Salisbury is your target. This is true for fashions, accessories, and fine footwear for ladies, men, boys and girls. Furniture and furnishings for the home are in abundance. Every facet of Banking, Legal and Medical professions are at hand. Food . . . from a snack to a full course meal is conveniently available. Parking facilities are conveniently located for your shopping pleasure. We're not modest — we're proud to say . . . there's more of everything in Downtown Salisbury.
